

MANAGING
MEDICAL STAFF CHANGE
THROUGH BYLAWS
AND OTHER STRATEGIES

DANIEL A. LANG, M.D.

WITH MARK A. KADZIELSKI, ESQ.,

AND J. ROBERT LISET, ESQ.

About the Authors

Daniel A. Lang, M.D., a board-certified internist with 20 years of private practice experience, is the medical director of the Health Association of Southern California (HASC) and of the National Health Foundation in Los Angeles. Additionally, he serves as clinical assistant professor of medicine at UCLA School of Medicine. Dr. Lang, a nationally recognized expert in peer review and medical staff management, is a frequent consultant and lecturer on bioethics, quality improvement, risk management, and hospital-medical staff relations. He has had 15 years experience as medical director in several large Los Angeles community hospitals. Dr. Lang provides consultation to medical staffs and hospital boards regarding accreditation and licensure issues, and he is a member of the Professional Liability Committee of the California Medical Association. He also chairs the HASC Bioethics Task Force and is a member of the Joint LACMA-LACBA Bioethics Committee. Additionally, Dr. Lang has served as a consultant to the California Medical Association Committee on Wellbeing of Physicians and the CALS Survey Program, as the president of the Bay District of the Los Angeles County Medical Association, and as the Medical Director of Area 22 Professional Standards Organization (PSRO).

Dr. Lang is the editor of the Medical Staff Newslines, a newsletter of the HASC. He has also authored several books, including The Disabled Physician: Problem-Solving Strategies for the Medical Staff (1989) and Medical Staff Peer Review: A Strategy for Motivation and Performance (1991). Both books are published by American Hospital Publishing in Chicago.

Mark A Kadzielski, Esq., is head of a west coast health care law practice at Epstein Becker & Green, Los Angeles.

J. Robert Liset, Esq., is chairman of the health care department at Musick, Peeler and Garrett, Los Angeles.

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vi
About the Authors	vii
Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction	ix
Prologue	xiii
Chapter 1. Medical Staff Bylaws—The Impetus for Change	1
Chapter 2. The Working Relationship among Physicians, Medical Staff, and Governing Body	5
Chapter 3. Medical Staff Membership and the Right to Practice	15
Chapter 4. Control of the Hospitalized Patient	27
Chapter 5. Allied Health Professionals	39
Chapter 6. Performance Improvement	49
Chapter 7. Hearings and Appeals	67
Chapter 8. Medical Staff Organization	81
Chapter 9. Governing Body—Medical Staff Linkages	101
Chapter 10. Hospital Medical Staff—Integrated Network Alignment ...	115
Epilogue	127
Appendix. Sample Bylaws Language Document	129

The opinions expressed herein are those of the authors. They do not represent the views, policy positions, or objectives of any identified group or organization, including the American Hospital Association. The bylaws language provided does not constitute legal advice in any jurisdiction and is provided solely for the purpose of stimulating discussion regarding organizational options.

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Lang, Daniel A.

Managing medical staff change through bylaws and other strategies.

Daniel A. Lang ; with Mark A. Kadzielski and J. Robert Liser,
p. cm.

Includes bibliographical references.

ISBN 1-55648-138-1. — ISBN 1-55648-138-1

I. Hospitals—Medical staff—Standards. 2. Hospitals—Medical staff—Legal status, laws, etc. 3. By-laws. 4. Hospital-physician relations. I. Kadzielski, Mark A. II. Liser, J. Robert.

III. Title.

[DNLM: 1. Medical Staff, Hospital—organization & administration.

2. Constitution and Bylaws. 3. Organizational Innovation.

4. Interprofessional Relations. WX 160 L269m 1995]

RA972.L266 1995

362.11'0683—dc20

DNLM/DLC

for Library of Congress

95-13933

CIP

Catalog no. 145104

© 1995 by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.,
an American Hospital Association company

All rights reserved. The reproduction or use of this book in any form or in any information storage or retrieval system is forbidden without the express written permission of the publisher.

Printed in the USA

 is a service mark of the American Hospital Association used under license by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.

Text set in Goudy
3M-07/95-0408

Audrey Kaufman, Senior Editor
Anne Hermann, Editor
Peggy DuMais, Production Coordinator
Cheryl Kusek, Cover Designer
Marcia Bottoms, Executive Editor